

Job Title

Traffic Anchor

Location

WEWS-TV Cleveland

WEWS-TV, the Scripps owned ABC affiliate in Cleveland, OH, is looking for a dynamic Traffic Anchor to help us continue to grow our morning and evening newscasts! The successful candidate will provide active, engaging and real time live traffic reports for Good Morning Cleveland and evening newscasts as needed. We are looking for someone who has a strong social media presence and willing to work a flexible schedule -- either reporting on traffic issues from the field or coming back to anchor traffic from the studio during our early evening newscasts. We are looking for the best of the best!

The Traffic Anchor is responsible for reporting traffic and related news stories.

- Must possess strong live reporting skills and the ability to communicate unscripted and breaking information in a clear and compelling way.
- Knowledge of traffic data and systems is required.
- Proficient with non-linear editing (i.e. Avid) and newsroom systems such as iNews is a plus.
- Candidate will need to report traffic on all media platforms including on-line, mobile and social media.
- Good news judgment and analytical abilities.
- 3-5 years of reporting experience in a medium or large market required.
- College degree preferred.

Ohio's first and longest-running television station, WEWS was also the company's first venture in television. It was licensed in 1947 and its call letters were chosen to recognize the company's founder, E.W. Scripps. In addition to these notable firsts, WEWS featured America's first female news commentator, Dorothy Fuldheim, and aired Cleveland's first televised baseball game. It was the first local TV station to receive the distinguished George Foster Peabody Award for local public service. WEWS is the largest ABC affiliate in Ohio. (www.newsnet5.com)

WEWS-TV is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Candidates who are offered positions must successfully complete a background and drug screen. Interested candidates should submit their resume to <http://scripps.com/careers>.
